

International Pathfinder Camporee International Communication Coordinator

Job Overview

Create, organize, plan and implement effective communications messages and strategies for/with Adventist media and public community audiences outside of the North American Division, to other SDA world divisions.

Responsibilities and Duties

- Reports to the International Pathfinder Camporee Off-site Communication Director.
- Team member of the International Pathfinder Camporee Off-site Communication team.
- Promote and write press releases for the Camporee to all SDA world divisions, except the NAD, to Adventist media outlets who have Pathfinders represented at the Camporee.

Qualifications

Education

- Post-secondary education (degree or diploma) in the areas of Communications, Public Relations or Journalism combined with related professional experience

Experience

- 3-5 years related work experience in progressively more responsible positions

Performance Competencies and Criteria

Position Competencies

- Creativity
- Analytical Skills
- Initiative
- Flexibility/Adaptability
- Team Skills
- Customer Awareness
- Consultative Skills
- Organizing/Planning Ability