

For over 30 years Cindi Young and her husband, Martin, have served Pathfinders in club leadership, on the Pathfinder Council and at the last 6 international camporees in different capacities. They have two married children, Steven and Emily and one grandson, Landin, who was baptized at the 2019 International Camporee.

With a BS in Office Administration, Cindi has worked at Southern Adventist University for over 20 years. In her capacity at Southern, she has helped new professors move to campus and coordinated all aspects of university housing for student and employee families.

Cindi is excited about the many new community service opportunities in Gillette, Wyoming!
