

Kenneth was born in Leesburg Georgia, raised in Chicago Illinois and is a product of the Seventh Day Adventist education system. Upon graduation from Shiloh SDA Academy in Chicago Illinois, he attended Oakwood College in Huntsville Alabama. Kenneth is a graduate of the FBI Law Enforcement Executive Development School and a certified Special Weapons and Tactics (SWAT) operator as well as a veteran of the United States Marine Corps.

Kenneth is currently serving as Director of Security for St. Tammany Parish Health System. Previously he served as Director of Public Safety/Chief of Police for Oakwood University in Huntsville, Alabama, Chief of Public Safety for the Mercedes Benz Superdome and the Smoothie King Center, home to the NFL New Orleans Saints and the NBA Pelicans. With over thirty-four years of experience in law enforcement management, he has served as a Security Consultant for the General Conference of Seventh Day Adventist in Silver Springs, Maryland and is currently the Security Director for the Southwest Region Conference of Seventh Day Adventist.

He considers it an honor to be able to witness to others and is a firm believer in the text "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."